Dear Mr. Riccardo,

Thank you so much for your warm welcoming letter to the May 11-13 Business Council meeting. My wife and I have so enjoyed our previous sessions with you all and are most appreciative of your continuing warm hospitality. We do look forward to being with you again this time. At the present moment our plans are to be there in time for dinner on Thursday, the 11th, and we look forward to being with you and the Clausens. Should anything intervene here in Washington, I will be in touch with you as quickly as possible.

Again, many thanks and looking forward to seeing you shortly.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Admiral Turner:

Mrs. Riccardo and I have been asked by the Business Council to be your hosts during your visit with us on May 11-13. We look forward to meeting you and Mrs. Turner, and to a very informative and pleasant time together.

It will be our pleasure to have you join us on Thursday evening for an informal dinner with the A. W. Clausens. He is President of Bank of America. Since we understand that you and Mrs. Turner are tennis buffs, we'll be happy to arrange a little friendly competition for you during your stay.

We'll call on you shortly after your arrival.

Sincerely,

Admiral Stanfield Turner
